

About Liz Million Author & Book Order Form

Dear Parent / Guardian

On...27th & 28th March..... we are delighted to welcome leading UK children's author Liz Million to our school, to give a presentation of her book and work with the children to create their own stories. Liz is currently touring schools throughout the UK and abroad with her unique style of story-telling. Liz will be bringing books with her on the day and will be available to do a signing for the children.

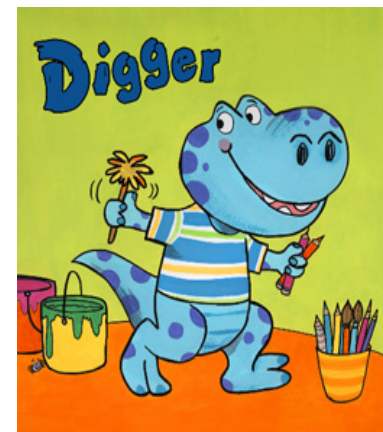

Liz Million is an illustrator and author of children's books. She also visits schools, libraries and museums all over the world to talk about her work and to show people how to draw!

Liz spent three years at Kingston University (Surrey), studying a degree in Illustration. After graduation she lived in Brighton for a year before moving back to Darlington in 2000 because she was poor and homesick! There, she lived with her lovely sister Rachael and their chocolate Labrador, Maggie, for 5 years. She now lives with her husband, Mark, their gorgeous baby George, and two furry guinea pigs. She also now has a lovely studio where she creates her characters and stories.

In her free time, Liz enjoys photography, visiting art exhibitions, animals, dancing to 70's disco tunes, talking, falling over, laughing at people falling over and annoying everyone with her loud voice and brilliant accents!

Digger can't decide what he wants to be when he grows up. His sisters and brothers already know what they want to do, it's just poor Digger with the problem.

Digger tries to invent a new exciting job for himself which quickly leads to disaster! Will he ever find something he's good at?!
